3 The amount of scholarship sanctioned was £150 a year for two years. As Mr. Venkatasubbaya states that the instalments of payment fixed are £31-5-0, it is to be presumed that an advance of £50 has been already paid to him and that it is to be deducted at the rate of £6-5-0 from each of the 8 quarterly instalments, which, but for this advance, would have been £37-10-0.

4 Mr. V now requests another advance

It is however submitted that while a certain amount of latitude must be allowed to the Scholars in the matter of their place of stay and study, it is very necessary to the Item substantially to their original plan, approved by Govt after due consideration of the Cases In the present case it is quite possible that Mr Venkatesambha may not have much to show in return for the amount so far spent on him, except perhaps a few weeks of non-Collegiate life in Germany and a few months of university life in Switzerland while engaged in pushing his legs a lot of money has perhaps been wasted and this is not a thing which can be justified whether in the best of any time - whether State or Donor does and as the Applicant has withdrawn the desire of Mr Hill Vo his Contract is for Consideration & the whole amount advanced should be recovered from him instead of showing him any further Concessions

The result shows that the right sort of man was not sent out. He departed from the programme laid out for him and went to Switzerland instead of to a German university. It is no wonder he could not bear the alpine cold of Switzerland. It is more than doubtful if the young man will take advantage of an increased scholarship to study Philology in Germany. He may be allowed to return home. He has probably secured a cheap University degree like the Brussels MD. It is a question whether

1 In September 1909 Mr Venkatsubbrah applied for a scholarship to undergo a course of study in Sanskrit and Comparative Philology in a German University In their Order of 11th February 1910 the Govt were pleased to sanction to him a scholarship of £ 150/- a year for two years from the Damodar Dass Fund, and the Director-General of Education was requested to prescribe a course of study which the Scholarship-holder should pursue Almost immediately afterwards Mr Iyer submitted to Govt Mr V's representation that £ 150 was not enough to enable him to take full advantage of the educational facilities in Germany, that the cost of books was great and that therefore the scholarship may be raised to £ 225 Mr Iyer recommended £ 200; but Govt declined to sanction it observing that the student must live

Sir,

I have the honor to state that I have received the letter from Government as regards the increase of scholarship and that I regard it as an answer to my letter of the 21st April

I have only to say this much - namely - that the amount granted by Government is of no use to me if I get it in instalments of £31-5-0, as my expenses are not uniform but amount to much in the beginning and decrease afterwards

So I request that Government should be pleased to pay to me now a sum of £50 with the usual instalments (the £50 to be deducted from the amount for the 2nd year) or the remaining instalments for this year - i e up to April 1911 - in a lump sum

I will expect the money until the 1st of July , and in case I do not get it, will act as my "private resources" compel me to act

SIR

With reference to Government Order No 330-1 / Ed 114-09-6 dated 14th July 1910, I have the honor to inform you that in my opinion the course taken up by Mr Venkatasubbaiya is not nearly so good as what was originally intended, and the mere fact that he talks of getting his Doctor's Degree after one term's study seems to me to place the matter beyond the possibility of doubt whether he actually obtains the degree so soon or not If he had taken up a course of Comparative Philology he would have found it necessary in order to follow the lectures to make a study of Latin and Greek which would probably have taken him about two years of hard work

Most of his time has been spent on his dissertation for the Doctor's Degree He does not state what the subject is but says that the Professor, being a specialist in Buddhistic Prakrit literature, has set him a subject which chiefly belongs to that branch but also requires work in Jain Prakrit and Brahministic Sanskrit His dissertation also involves Kavya and Alamkara and the subject of his University lectures was the Vedas He also attended the prescribed lectures in English and History and after finishing his dissertation had to prepare for an examination in all the subjects of the University lectures

He admits that the work done in Sanskrit cannot be called specialization, but gives the following list of some of the works

Mr Annaiya Pandit applies for the payment of his return passage money in case of illness or inability to withstand the cold It seems that Mr Venkatasubbaiya row talks of joining a University for Comparative Philology where Latin and Greek are not necessary I think he would be much better to come away home and I therefore recommend that the Comptroller be authorised to pay him the amount of passage money Viz £34-16-8 to be adjusted hereafter

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr Wen

Have you heard again from Mr Venkatasubbayya who has gone to study Sanskrit in Europe. His grandfather told me in confidence that the young man could not stand the climate in London unless such an improvement exists, it seems to be desirable to direct him to specialise in Philology &c before his return.

If there are any proposals to be made in this connection will you kindly expedite the reference? I could not understand the matter from what Mr A Pandeh told me, and did not meet you personally afterwards.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr. Rangachari

About Venkatasubbayya I think it would be best for the Comptroller to arrange with Messrs Coutts to pay his passage money on demand at any time and thereafter pay no further quarterly allowance

About the future I think it would be advisable to raise his scholarship to £200 a year from 1st April on condition of his going to a good University and taking up Comp Phil^y with Latin and Greek for two years Orders should be passed soon so that he may begin Latin & Greek at once This assumes of course that he has not started off home in the meantime

Presumably he will be a candidate for the Sanskrit professorship in the Maharaja's College in the meantime it may be convenient for the Sanskrit work there to keep on Mr. Venkataramana Sastry and the Sanskrit Pandit For ready reference I enclose a copy of extracts from the latest University report on the arrangements being made in other Colleges. From these you will see that these arrangements are very similar to the one I propose I would like to know the views of Govt. before the convocation address on Friday

Yours sincerely

J Iver

Group VI. -- Telugu and Sanskrit p 9

As regards ~~the~~ staff, Mr Penn told us that to the services of two Telugu Pandits, one of whom is said to be of some repute as a Telugu scholar, he proposes to add, if necessary, those of another Telugu Pandit. For Sanskrit, it is his intention to employ another graduate in Sanskrit in addition to the one already employed. We venture to think these arrangements will be satisfactory

Government College, Rajahmundry.

Group VI -- Telugu and Sanskrit p 11

The staff for Course VI consists of two pandits, each of whom teaches Sanskrit and Telugu From the long conversation Mr Ramanujachari had with them, he is satisfied that they are qualified to teach Sanskrit as well as Telugu in accordance with the new University Regulations He, however, suggests that, as the History of the language which forms a part of the B A Course in languages under the new Regulations is a subject which they have not taught before, the pandits may for some time, have the assistance of a graduate who has a knowledge of Sanskrit and Telugu. This would not necessarily involve an addition to the staff, as we understand that it already contains at least one graduate competent to give such assistance.

Government College, Kumbakonam

Group VI -- Sanskrit and Tamil. p 12

There are now on the staff of the College a Sanskrit Pandit and a Tamil Pandit Both of these are learned pandits and capable and enthusiastic teachers, who are well able to do their part of the work in the B A.Course. Mr Hedges agreed with me in this opinion, as well as in the opinion that a good Sanskrit graduate must be associated with the Sanskrit Pandit, and a good Tamil graduate with the Tamil Pandit, in order that the work comprised in the curriculum of studies relating to Sanskrit and Tamil in the B A. Course may be done thoroughly and with critical accuracy in the light of modern methods and research He undertook to see to it that the staff is made fully suitable for the purpose

Dear Sir,

Your D O No 4582 of yesterday-

I have not heard anything direct from Venkatasubbiah but I had a note the other day from Mr Anniah Pandit, a copy of which is enclosed

I think that the Comptroller's letter to Messrs Coutts & Co means that the scholarship is not to be paid in January without further orders (whether the passage money is paid or not) and I therefore wrote again to Mr Anniah Pandit asking him to let me know as soon as ever he hears from Venkatasubbiah regarding his plans

Yours sincerely,
